Newsletter

September 2017

Welcome to the autumn edition which is being produced early so as to allow the promotion of our fourth Stamp Day as we move its venue around the region, as promised. This display event takes place on Saturday 2nd September at Whittlesford, south of Cambridge, just off the M11, by Duxford.

As well as two excellent speakers – Terry Wagg (Czelaw Slania) and Simon Richards (Dominica) there will be available a lunch time excursion to a nearby pub, the Red Lion, where we have a room reserved and a menu which will accompany this newsletter, so that ALL meals can be pre-ordered to save loss of time from the displays.

Also on display will be many of the entries from the Convention.

Many of our members belong to specialist societies such as the West Africa Study Circle, the Scottish Postal History Society and the Rhodesia Study Circle – so please may we hear of any successes to recognise achievement but particularly to show: what we can do to get more from our collections and the help and support available . An example from the British Air Mail Society is featured below.

Annual Convention

Our fourth such day was apparently the best so far, certainly the best supported with 37 entries. Judging had been carried out at Cavendish Auctions in Derby by international judge John Jackson, together with Greg and Sue Spring on the panel, and took all day.

The standards were higher than ever with ten entries gaining 85 marks or more – equivalent to a gold at Federation level. In the inter-society competition, where the best entries from each society in the three 9 sheet classes, Cambridge scored 249 marks which would have won every year until now, but this was topped by King's Lynn's 260.

This all serves to show how our members are getting better at competition entries. Well done to all who took part and thank you.

Two major points arise from this year's event.

First, several exhibits were entered in classes which the judges changed as is their right. For instance an open class entry consisting ONLY of stamps can only be a traditional one. A postal history entry with non-philatelic material can only go in to open class.

Second, for two reasons I am looking at recommending that we move to all entries consisting of 16 sheets. This will avoid the problem of wrongly assigned entries of 16 sheets having to transfer to a 9 sheet class and vice versa. Also if our Convention is meant to be a springboard to national level, then only 16 sheet entries are permitted, or multiples thereof.

One of the problems with 9 sheet competitions is that exhibits need to have a narrow focus which is not often the case and, with my apologies to the collector concerned, 'the development of air mail between the two World Wars' is an example of a wonderful theme not served by the constraints of 9 sheets!

If it is decided at the AGM that the move to all competitions consisting of 16 sheets is adopted, then this could come in either 2018 or 2019, but I suspect the latter would be the better option.

One further consideration would be with regard to the King's Lynn Jubilee Trophy which was donated for a competition where each of the inter-society 9 sheet classes morphed into 16 sheet formats on a rotating three year cycle, and entered by individuals in their own right.

The proposal here, subject to the agreement of King's Lynn P. S., would be to allow the introduction of other classes such as post cards, postal stationery and revenues.

On Sunday, 8th October all are invited to Hinckley's Annual Fair and Exhibition which is being held at Hinckley Academy and John Cleveland Sixth Form Centre's Main Hall (LE10 1LE). Further details may be obtained from Mick Rose (email: brecon@talktalk.net) or secretary Bob Mason on 01455 250745.

My apologies to Isle of Ely P S; a report of their meetings over the last year has been received but lack of space means that this is held over to the next issue.

Photos from the convention

Jon Higgins and John Sims jointly receive the Jack Simmonds Trophy and the aerophilatelic shield from Bill Gibb.

David Rice being awarded the Fenland Trophy for his WW 1 display of St Omer mail.

The Stitt Dibden Cup is presented to Mike Kentzer for his King's Lynn Penny Post.

This year's winning society was King's Lynn and Paul Lascelles, their chairman, receives the Millennium Shield.

Phil Waud scored 90 points for his study of the QV 4d Jubilee stamp and so was presented with the new Federation Shield.

The engraver Czelaw Slania enabled Terry Wagg to win the Williams Rose Bowl in the thematic class.

Colin Hepper accepts the King's Lynn Jubilee Trophy for his winning entry of Nepal: negative postal seals.

Finally, Phil Waud won the prestigious Kay Goodman Trophy as his Jubilees gained him the highest mark in any of our competitions.

Our members are often members of specialist societies. John Sims and I belong to the British Air Mail Society. At their recent AGM I was fortunate to win the 'junior' competition' while John won the senior trophy for his entry of mail carried by the Australian pilot C T P Ulm.

Autumn Stampex 2017

As a Federation we are entering the inter-Fed competition at this bi-annual event. Our three 16 sheet entries are:

John Sims – The mail carrying flights of C T P Ulm	(aerophilately)
Stuart Ross – provisional revenue issued of Nyasaland	(revenues) and
Colin Hepper – negative postal seals of Nepal	(postal history)

I know of three members who are exhibiting in their own right:

Terry Wagg – Czelaw Slania (3 frames – 48 sheets) open class

Phil Waud – Great Britain – the 4d Queen Victoria Jubilee (1 frame) traditional

Mike Kentzer – Pre-stamp postal history of King's Lynn, 1732 -1840 (1 frame)

Terry's exhibit looks at all aspects of the work of this brilliant and most profile engraver.

Phil's entry is an extended one from his 9 sheet entry (see above) and shows what can be done moving up from 9 to 16 sheets.

The Sarawak Society has a large number of frames, but 30 of them (480 sheets) are being entered by Jon Higgins covering a wide range of 'areas' from Labuan, North Borneo and Sarawak.

Best wishes to all these representatives of MAPF.

If there are any others I would appreciate being informed.

Now from all of the above it would seem that our be all and end all is competitions and that is only PART of what we hope to offer.

Richard Husband, our treasurer, is able to make small grants available for a society's projects; he can be contacted via the Federation's website: www.mapf.org.uk

One of the toughest jobs in stamp clubs seems to be that of finding speakers.

This DOES NOT have to be so. In the newsletter, which I hope is emailed out to as many of your members as possible, there are the details, annually, of 200+ exhibitors and their subjects, and while it is programme secretaries who make bookings, surely members can look at these lists and ask if a particular subject might be chosen. A 'phone call to the host secretary will find out the quality of the display and any costs involved.
